GUEST CHOREOGRAPHERS

TIM FOURNIER

Tim Fournier is originally from Boston, MA where he trained with the Gold Family (Sherry, Rhee & Rennie Gold). His early training included numerous master teachers from all over the world concentrating on technique, artistry and performance in styles ranging from tap (his first love) to ballet and jazz/hip-hop. Tim's professional career started at the early age of 9 with a performance on "Star Search." Tim has trained and worked in New York City, Los Angeles, France, Germany, Switzerland, and Japan.

His resume includes stage, movie and television performances in "Boy's & Girls," starring Freddie Prince Jr., "Cinderelmo," "Jerry Lewis Telethon," Goodwill Games performance with Natalie Cole, "Peter Pan Broadway Tour," Radio City Music Hall, Tokyo Disneyland, West Side Story (European Tour), Crazy For You, Sea Doo, Reebok, Compac, Intel, Beauty & the Beast (Walt Disney World), YM Magazine and more. He has worked with such famous stars as Debbie Gibson, Brandy, Linda Eder, Bebe & Cece Winans, Seiko Matsuda, Fayard Nicholas, (of the Nicholas Brothers) All 4 One, Cathy Rigby, Claire Forlani, Keri Russell and more. Internationally, Tim is also known as a teacher and choreographer in Thailand. Artists trained by Tim include Golf-Mike, Chin, Knes, P Bird, Storm, C-Quint, Bie The Star, and more. Recently Tim performed with Tata Young on the runway of Don Mueng Airport, Thailand at her International Press Premier.

EDWIN HOLLAND

Edwin Holland has studied ballet, tap, and jazz since the age of 8. Under the tutelage of his long-time teacher, Judi Nelson, he eventually developed a passion for tap. In 1984, Dance Masters of America awarded him the title of Mr. Dance of Florida. As a graduate of Florida State University, with a B.S. in Accounting, and after working as a CPA for an accounting firm for 3 years, Edwin decided to open his own dance studio. He became owner of the studio where he studied dance as a child. For 23 years, he and his wife, Gaile owned and operated the Edwin Holland School of Dance in North Miami. In addition to having his own studio, Edwin has performed in various shows and dance concerts across the state. He was a featured performer with the Cotton Club Review that traveled to Madrid and Barcelona in 2003.

MICHELLE MOORE

Michelle Moore is an accomplished teacher, choreographer, dancer, and performer. She was an Olympic gymnastics team qualifier in the 1980's and then went on to Point Park University to pursue a double major in The Fine Arts & Business. Michelle has trained and danced with some of the greatest legends in the dance world; Gus Giordano, Luigi, Frank Hatchett, Henry LeTang, Savion Glover, Fayard Nicolas, and many, many more.

GUEST CHOREOGRAPHERS

Professionally she has performed on the stages of Disney World, New York, Chicago, Pittsburgh, Atlantic City and California.

Michelle was the owner and director of her own dance studio and touring company for 15 years. With over 30 years of teaching experience and a diverse education in the arts, Michelle teaches master classes and choreographs throughout the country. As well as being a sought after judge in the dance competition circuit, she has earned numerous recognitions over the years for her choreography on both the regional and national levels and many of her former students have gone on to pursue professional dance careers of their own.

As an acrobatics coach, aerial trapeze trainer and choreographer, Michelle choreographed for Celebrity Cruise Lines Solstice, Equinox and Eclipse luxury ships. Her cirque-like choreography and varied dance styled choreography can be seen in six of the ships shows. In the spring, she will be choreographing and directing a one-woman show in Las Vegas.

Today, Michelle continues to educate and choreograph dancers in South Florida.

ALLYSSA NELSON

Allyssa's dance journey began right here at Donna Lee Studio of Dance, where she trained under the guidance of our amazing instructors. As a Donna Lee/Expressions Alumni, she gained a solid technical foundation and developed a deep love for the art of dance.

At the age of 14, Allyssa's dedication and talent led her to attend the prestigious New World School of the Arts High School. During her time there, she further honed her skills and immersed herself in the world of dance. To enhance her training, she also participated in summer intensives at acclaimed institutions such as Thomas Armor Youth Ballet, Sarasota Ballet, BalletMet, and Alonzo King LINES Ballet.

After graduating from New World School of the Arts in 2020, Allyssa's passion for dance propelled her to join BalletMet's Trainee program for two seasons. This invaluable experience allowed her to refine her technique and perform alongside seasoned professionals.

Continuing her dance journey, Allyssa went on to dance professionally with New Orleans Ballet Theatre for two seasons. Her time with the company enriched her artistry and expanded her repertoire, showcasing her versatility and talent on stage.

Currently, Allyssa is a company artist with Marigny Opera Ballet. As an integral part of this company, she continues to push boundaries and captivate audiences with her grace, precision, and artistry.

GUEST CHOREOGRAPHERS

ROSSELYN RODRIGUEZ

A Miami native, Rosselyn has an extensive dance background spanning 15 years as a dancer/performer and two years as a dedicated teacher and choreographer. Rosselyn began her training at Donna Lee Studio of Dance. With training in diverse styles such as ballet, jazz, contemporary, tap, acrobatics, and pointe, she's a versatile artist. Her educational journey includes attending prestigious magnet schools in Miami, FL such as Southwood Middle School and New World School of the Arts. Rosselyn also spent time training at Armour Dance Theater, where she polished her dance skills even further. Now, Rosselyn is fulfilling her dream as an NFL cheerleader for the Miami Dolphins and has had the honor to perform with well known artist such as Rick Ross, Jayco, Trick Daddy, Uncle Luke, and more! Rosselyn is eager to inspire the next generation with her love and passion for dance.

LEEANNE SCHWARTZ

LeeAnne Ashley Schwartz was born and raised in Homestead, FL. Her love of dance began at Donna Lee Studio of Dance at the age of 5. LeeAnne attended magnet schools in South Florida. LeeAnne was a member of Expressions Dance Company for 8 years. After Hurricane Andrew, her family relocated to Lynchburg, VA. She finished dancing at the Lynchburg Fine Arts Center. After high school she attended Wright State University where she majored in Theatre Studies. LeeAnne has a broad view of experiences which include: Costuming, Stage Management, Lighting Design and Dance Education. LeeAnne was the assistant to the Choreographer for Wright States production "Crazy For You", she then knew after that she wanted to become a dance teacher. LeeAnne also choreographed the musical 42nd Street at the Dayton Playhouse in 2002. She was then awarded the Blackburn Award of Excellence for her outstanding choreography for that particular musical.

In 2003 she knew it was time to open her own dance studio. LeeAnne is the owner of LeeAnne Ashley Studio of Dance in Bedford, VA. She is a member of Florida Dance Masters and Mid Atlantic Dance Masters Chapter 17. Certified in Ballet, Tap, Jazz and Acrobatics. She loves to teach dance and will continue to pass on her passion.

ARTISTIC DIRECTORS

ALICIA NORWOOD

Alicia Norwood's dance training began at Jill Mallory School of Dance. She continued her studies at the Donna Lee Studio of Dance, dancing there until her graduation from high school. Alicia was one of the original members of Expressions Dance Company under the artistic direction of Donna Lee Roach. She went on to become Assistant Artistic Director of Expressions, and is now Co-Artistic Director of the dance company. She has been sharing her passion for dance excellence as a teacher of tap, jazz and ballet at the Donna Lee Studio for over twenty years.

In 1986, she became a member of Dance Masters of America and Florida Dance Masters (FDM). Alicia served on the board of directors of FDM for ten years and was the head of the jazz department at South Miami Elementary Magnet School for six years. Alicia has produced students who have been awarded the titles of "Miss Dance of Florida" and "Miss Homestead" and who have been awarded thousands of dollars in scholarships. Her students have become professional dancers with Walt Disney World, The Young Americans, and many renowned ballet companies. Currently, as the Co-Owner/Director of Donna Lee Studio of Dance, Alicia Norwood is continuing the tradition of quality dance education in the South Miami Dade community.

VICKY GONZALEZ

Vicky Gonzalez began her dance training at the Donna Lee Studio of Dance under the direction of Donna Lee Roach. She was a principal performer with the Expressions Dance Company and also studied dance at the Hartford Ballet, Milwaukee Ballet, Princeton Ballet School and the Ballet Academy of Miami. While still in high school, Vicky performed "Paquita" with Fernando Bujones and the Miami Ballet. After graduating from New World School of the Arts High School, Vicky danced professionally with the American Repertory Ballet Company in Princeton, New Jersey. She toured nationally and internationally, performing the works of world-renowned choreographers. Vicky also danced with the Roxey Ballet Company as one of their founding soloist dancers before returning permanently to Miami in 2000. She continued her performing career as a principle dancer with Ballet Theatre of Miami under the direction of Tony Catanzaro. It was at this time that she brought her considerable knowledge and training to Donna Lee Studio of Dance, where she has been teaching ever since. Vicky has been a member of Florida Dance Masters since 2004. In 2006, she accepted the position of Co-Artistic Director of Expressions Dance Company. Vicky Gonzalez is currently Co-Owner/Director of the Donna Lee Studio of Dance and looks forward to sharing her love of dance for years to come.
